OKLAHOMA CITY – Broken Arrow native and Broadway star Kristin Chenoweth is part of this year's 2010 Oklahoma Hall of Fame class.

The Oklahoma Heritage Association made the announcement at a luncheon in Oklahoma City Thursday.

Chenoweth has won a Tony award and been nominated for an Emmy.

She is one of six inductees receiving this year's honor.

The other inductees include Edward Keller, of Tulsa; Michael Turpen, originally from Tulsa; Lew Ward, of Enid; Robert Hefner, of Oklahoma City, and Judy Love, of Oklahoma City.

The six inductees will be formally inducted into the Oklahoma Hall of Fame on November 4, 2010.
