
Ada Evening News

Serving Ada, Oklahoma since 1904

OHA names new officers, directors

— OKLAHOMA CITY – At the Oklahoma Heritage Association’s recent annual membership meeting, the organization elected Chancellor Glen D. Johnson of Durant its chairman for Oklahoma’s centennial year.

Johnson succeeds Roxana Lorton of Tulsa, who is now chairman emeritus. Other officers elected are Tom McDaniel of Oklahoma City, chairman elect; Becky J. Frank of Tulsa, corporate secretary; and Roger Collins of Bristow, treasurer. Elected vice chairmen and representing their membership zones are Calvin Anthony, Stillwater; Nevyle Cable, Okmulgee; Ken Fergeson, Altus; Ike Glass, Newkirk; David Kyle, Tulsa; Paul Massad, Norman; Meg Salyer, Oklahoma City; and Steve Taylor, McAlester. Elected at-large executive committee members are Clayton I. Bennett, Oklahoma City; Bond Payne, Oklahoma City; and David Rainbolt, Oklahoma City.

New directors are Bill Anoatubby, Ada; Patti Evans, Ponca City; Christy Everest, Oklahoma City; Gilbert “Gib” Gibson, Lawton; Jane Jayroe, Oklahoma City; Gregory E. Pyle, Durant; Sharon Shoulders, Henryetta; Stan Stamper, Hugo; and Hardy Watkins, Oklahoma City.

Returning directors are Wanda Bass, McAlester; Jim Bellatti, Stillwater; Ed Boynton, Durant; G. Bridger Cox, Ardmore; Bob Burke, Oklahoma City; Andy Coats, Oklahoma City; Betty Crow, Altus; Ford Drummond, Bartlesville; Cy Elmburg, Miami; Clyde Estes, Henryetta; John Feaver, Chickasha; Vaughn Dean Fuller, Tulsa; C. Hubert Gragg, Newcastle; Jean Harbison, Lawton; Fred Harlan, Okmulgee; Pat Henry, Lawton; Ernest L. Holloway, Langston; Larry Lee, Tulsa; Duke Ligon, Oklahoma City; Dave Lopez, Oklahoma City; John Massey, Durant; J.W. McLean, Frisco, Texas; Mary Mélon, Oklahoma City; John W. Nichols, Oklahoma City; C.D. Northcutt, Ponca City; Suzanne O’Brien, Tulsa; Deane H. Oven, Tulsa; Leslie Paris, Tulsa; Carl R. Renfro, Ponca City; Lee Allan Smith, Oklahoma City; Mark Stansberry, Edmond; G. Lee Stidham, Checotah; Harold Stuart, Jensen Beach, Fla.; Chuck Thompson, Norman; Ty Tyler, Oklahoma City; J. Blake Wade, Oklahoma City; and Peter M. Walter, Tulsa.

The Oklahoma Heritage Association is a non-profit organization funded entirely by private donations that preserve Oklahoma heritage and promote pride throughout the state. The OHA is dedicated to telling Oklahoma’s story through its people and accomplishes that mission by hosting the Oklahoma Hall of Fame, supporting education, leading the publishing industry in publishing Oklahoma history, and recognizing organizations and individuals committed to preserving state history.

Copyright © 1999-2006 cnhi, inc.